

Charlotte Watson, Conflict and Security adviser

Charlotte joined Saferworld as a Conflict and Security Adviser in January 2016 and leads on Saferworld's security and justice work. She also works on gender and peace building and conflict-sensitive development.

Before joining Saferworld, Charlotte spent five years as an independent peacebuilding consultant based in Uganda and South Africa leading research and field work in Karamoja, Uganda and Northern Bahr el Ghazal, South Sudan. Prior to this Charlotte spent eight years at International Alert, leading their security and peacebuilding work and developing their community security work in Nepal.

Khirad Kargasov, Tajikistan Country Manager

Khirad became Country Manager in June 2019, overseeing the country's strategy and the implementation of projects. Khirad has been with the organisation since 2014 - first managing community security project in five states of South Sudan, and then later in Tajikistan where he helped set up the country office and community policing programme.

Before Saferworld, Khirad worked as Program Manager for U.S. the United States Department of State's at the US Embassy in Dushanbe, Tajikistan, where he coordinated implementation of the Tajikistan Community Policing programme.

Mauro Tadiwe, South Sudan Country Manager

Mauro Tadiwe joined Saferworld as South Sudan Country Director in April 2018. Before, he was Country Director with Concordis International and Pact in South Sudan between 2009 and 2017.

Mauro trained as a priest and worked in Sudan and South Sudan before moving to UK, where he worked for eight years at two inner-London regeneration schemes, and for nearly three years with Housing Associations' Charitable Trust. Mauro holds a BA in theology from Urbaniana University in Rome, and a master's degree in management practice from Middlesex University in London.